I. INTRODUCTION

1. By General Assembly resolution 845 (IX) of 22 November 1954, Member States were invited to extend to the inhabitants of Non-Self-Governing Territories offers of facilities not only for study and training of university standard, but also for study at the post-primary level, as well as technical and vocational training of immediate practical value.

2. In accordance with General Assembly resolution 1696 (XVI) of 19 December 1961, offers extended under resolution 845 (IX) are communicated by the Secretariat to the administering Powers to enable them to give appropriate publicity to the offers in the Territories under their administration.

3. Information on scholarships offered by Member States under the programme is made available to prospective applicants. Reference to the programme is included in the twenty-eighth edition of the handbook entitled Study Abroad (1994/1995), published by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO).

4. Under the terms of General Assembly resolution 845 (IX) and subsequent resolutions, 1/ the Secretary-General submits to the Assembly each year a report containing detailed information on the offers made and the extent to which they were utilized. 2/ The present report, which covers the period from 1 October 1994 to 30 September 1995 is submitted in accordance with paragraph 5 of resolution 49/42 of 9 December 1994.

B. Offers and awards

New Zealand

7. In a note verbale dated 15 September 1995, the Permanent Representative of New Zealand to the United Nations informed the Secretary-General that in 1995 20 students from New Caledonia and 33 students from Tokelau were studying in New Zealand on New Zealand Government scholarships.

United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland

8. In a note verbale dated 20 September 1995, the Permanent Representative of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland to the United Nations informed the Secretary-General that during the financial year 1994/95 the United Kingdom had offered 55 scholarships to students from the British Non-Self-Governing Territories as follows: Anguilla (7); Bermuda (5); British Virgin Islands (6); Cayman Islands (3); Falkland Islands (Malvinas) (1); Gibraltar (2); Montserrat (8); Saint Helena (including Tristan da Cunha) (21); and Turks and Caicos Islands (2).

Austria

9. In a note verbale dated 28 September 1995, the Permanent Mission of Austria to the United Nations informed the Secretary-General that the Austrian Development Cooperation regularly provided vocational training and capacity-building in the infrastructure and education sectors for inhabitants of Western Sahara. Furthermore, specific assistance was being provided on a regular basis for the training of kindergarten teachers from that Territory.

III. APPLICATIONS MADE THROUGH THE UNITED NATIONS

10. In accordance with the procedure established by General Assembly resolution 1696 (XVI), applications for scholarships received by the United Nations Secretariat from inhabitants of Non-Self-Governing Territories are transmitted simultaneously to the offering States for consideration and to the administering Powers for information.

11. Between 1 September 1994 and 15 September 1995, the Secretariat received requests from 25 students for information on the availability of scholarships. None of those students were inhabitants of Non-Self-Governing Territories. Requests for information and applications received from South African students were forwarded for consideration to UNETPSA, as well as to the offering Governments.
